COMMENT / SIGN IN SHEET

Jolene Erickson signed in to address the City Council. Jolene asked the City Council to clarify their views on the marijuana shop that's rumored to be opening at the Bowling alley in Davenport. Jolene identified herself as a public health nurse for Lincoln County. She is very concerned about the marijuana industry moving to Davenport. She asked the City Council to consider placing a moratorium on these businesses. Jolene stressed that she wants to be part of the solution not the problem and urged the City Council to have a Committee meeting to discuss this issue at length.

Mike Wade commented that he was against allowing the marijuana industry to open a shop in Davenport. He told the City Council that it was within their legal rights to place a moratorium on these kinds of businesses and he urged them to do so.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Airport

Patrick Katz told the City Council that the Committee met to review the environmental assessment done at the Davenport Municipal Airport. Patrick asked the City Council to read the document which is posted on the City's web-site. He mentioned that we're in the 10 day review period for the study and any questions or comments are welcome.

Patrick told the City Council that City Hall has received three bids to build a hangar at the airport. City Administrator Steve Goemmel commented that he was waiting for one more bid before bringing them to the Committee.

MAYOR'S REPORT

Mayor Sweet told the City Council that the Washington State legislative session is starting in January and that he is planning a couple of trips to the Olympia to voice the concerns of the City of Davenport to the legislators especially the ones from Eastern Washington.

Brad told the City Council that he would shuffle the Committee assignment at the next City Council meeting.
