COMMITTEE REPORTS

Airport

Patrick Katz reported that the Committee met to discuss activities at the Davenport Municipal Airport. He told the City Council that the City got an estimate of $160,000 from Halme Builders to construct a 60 x 50 hangar at the airport. He said that City Administrator Steve Goemmel was waiting for another estimate from Stimson Construction. No action was taken.

Patrick said that the Committee discussed the progress of the Runway Relocation Project at the airport. The first part of the environment study is complete and it's looking like construction won't start until 2020. The sewer line extension project at the airport has just started and the contractor has 14 days to complete the project.
